Justice Will Prevail

Words and Music by Randall Effner © 2006

(capo on 1st fret)

Am C G They operate outside the laws of civilized society Am C G They operate outside the laws of civilized society Am C G They got names like Masanjia, Chaoyang, and Longshan F Am The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
If you're traveling to China there's some places you won't see Am C G They operate outside the laws of civilized society Am C G They got names like Masanjia, Chaoyang, and Longshan F Am The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
Am C G They operate outside the laws of civilized society
They operate outside the laws of civilized society Am C G They got names like Masanjia, Chaoyang, and Longshan F Am The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
Am C G They got names like Masanjia, Chaoyang, and Longshan F Am The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
They got names like Masanjia, Chaoyang, and Longshan F Am The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
F Am The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
The CCP's Forced Labor Camps are a blight upon the land. Am C Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
Millions of good people endure torture there for years Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
Am C G They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
They had no trial nor were they judged by a jury of their peers Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
Am C G So why are they imprisoned there to suffer so much grief? F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
F Am They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
They are prisoners of conscience, upholding their belief.
Charus
Chorus.
G Am
But justice will prevail
C E E7 Am
Oh justice will prevail
Am C
The beautiful Ms Gao Rongrong was tortured at Longshan
Am C G
For seven hours they shocked her face with high-voltage batons,
Am C G When they failed to arush her spirit they disfigured her instead
When they failed to crush her spirit they disfigured her instead F Am
But that was not enough, they did not stop till she was dead.

Am	\mathbf{C}
If the walls at Masanjia could talk they'	d tell a dreadful tale
Am	\mathbf{C}
How eighteen women were undressed an	nd thrown in the men's cell
Äm	\mathbf{C}
Those wardens should be tried for crime	es against humanity
F	Am
Instead they got a bonus from the wicke	d CCP
Instrumental Interlude
Am	C
Remember when you're shopping at the	discount store this year
Am C	\mathbf{G}
That anything from China might be made	de with blood and tears
Am C	\mathbf{G}
I don't know what they call it, but I call	it slavery
F	Am
To force millions of people to make export goods for free.
Am C
I look up at the stars at night and I try t	o understand
Am C	${f G}$
How anyone could do such things unto t	their fellow man
Am C	\mathbf{G}
But evil will receive its due 'cause heaven's laws don't fail, F Am
Good will be rewarded and justice will p
Chorus:
G Am
Yes justice will prevail
C E E7 Am
Oh justice will prevail		