Verse 3

The labor camps are like a living hell
 Where you're beaten, starved and brainwashed and there's nowhere to appeal
 There is no law or justice there is just the CCP
 Who hide their evil deeds behind a cloak of secrecy

Verse 4

The free world should stand up for liberty
 But now we sell out human rights to buy a cheap TV
 We see slavery and torture and we turn our head aside
 I'd rather spend a little more than pay for genocide

Repeat Chorus

Verse 5

The world will not forget the Berlin Wall
 And how the people danced with joy, just to see it fall
 The Chinese leaders shake with fear remembering that day
 They know their time is almost up and soon they'll have to pay

Verse 6

The blood-red dragon can no longer fly
 Nine swords have pierced its armor and it looks about to die
 Now millions of its members have renounced it publicly
 The world will be a better place without the CCP
